Home Discussions

In Piece 2 & 3 we will be discussing the topic of losing people who are important to us. You could spend some time talking about people who you have loved and lost in your family and sharing memories.

How do you let people know they are important to you?

The children will help Jigsaw Jaz to make a memory box for a pet that has died. You could share what you do or have to remember those that you have lost. You could make a memory box together.

RHE

In Piece 5 the children discuss the idea of boyfriends and girlfriends. They will discuss how this is different from other friendships. The children will talk about how people may show that they are a 'couple'. We will discuss how different behaviours are appropriate at different ages, e.g. marriage is legal in the UK from 18, and that this is because we need to be mature and responsible enough to make a romantic commitment.
